REV. MR. SPURGEON DEAD

THE GREAT PREACHER DIES AT MENTONE.

A Rebellious Manifesto in Russia—Steamship Elder Ashore on the Isle of Wight—H. M. S. Victoria Aground—Portugal's Bad Financial Position.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—A dispatch just received here from Mentone announces the death of the Rev. Chas. H. Spurgeon at 11:05 last night.

Rev. Charles Haddon Spurgeon was born June 19th, 1834, at Kelvedon, Essex. He received an ordinary education under strong religious influences, and became very early in life usher of a school in Nottingham, in which humble capacity he developed astonishing powers in public speaking, and was especially effective in religious exhortation. His relatives, who were Independents, offered to have him trained for the ministry, but he declined because he had paedobaptist views. Later he relinquished these and joined the church formerly presided over by Robt. Hall at Cambridge. He became a village preacher at Feversham, and soon after became pastor of the Baptist church at Waterbeach. At this period, though only seventeen years old, he delivered a series of discourses which attracted immense crowds and spread his fame through England and over America as the boy preacher. Having been offered the chapel in New Park street, Southwark, he preached for the first time in London in 1853, with such success that the edifice had to be enlarged to accommodate the rapidly growing congregation. At Exeter Hall, which was occupied during these alterations, hundreds were turned away every Sunday, being unable to get within the door. The enlarged chapel in New Park street proved insufficient, and the Surrey Music Hall was hired to accommodate the overflow. Finally the Metropolitan Tabernacle was built, which holds 4000 or 5000 people, and there the famous preacher remained to this day. Since 1853 his sermons have been published weekly and sold throughout the Protestant world in increased numbers. In 1887 Mr. Spurgeon severed his connection with the Baptist Union because it tolerated heretical views on the subject of hell. This gave rise to a long controversy. In 1888 was celebrated the delivery of his two thousandth sermon. The Pastor's College, the Coportage Association, the book fund and supplementary pastors' aid fund were all founded by Mr. Spurgeon in support of his work at the Tabernacle. In his illness, which began seven months ago and passed through many vicissitudes, he has had world-wide sympathy, and his devoted congregation have been untiring in their petitions to the Lord for his recovery.

The Russian Government Attacked.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—The Daily Graphic to-day publishes a manifesto which it says has been issued by the Russian zemstovs (local administrative bodies), which are composed of country gentlemen and land owners, on the famine in Russia and the inadequacy of government measures to afford relief. The manifesto declares Tolstoi's efforts to lighten the sufferings of the famine-stricken people are only tolerated because of his celebrity. It continues: "The government is armed with weapons of a state of siege, filling Siberian jails with persons suspected of revolutionary propaganda. This government, which has robbed us of all reforms inaugurated by Alexander II., and which has deprived society from taking any part in public life, has brought to Russia starvation. Such a government cannot solve the present problem with its own forces. The calamity is only in its initial stages; spring will disclose its proportions. How will it end if the government does not change its attitude? Society is in a state of bankruptcy and political enfeeblement and dismemberment. Russia, in a popular rising, would be deluged with her people's blood. No one can foresee the end."

Hungarian Election Riots.

VIENNA, Feb. 1.—The scenes at the Hungarian elections were of the most violent character. In the ancient town of Steinam-anger, on the river Guns, the people became worked up to a furious pitch. It was reported that the government had determined to count the opposition candidates out if the latter received a majority. This rumor received general credence, and the multitude stormed and demolished the voting booths and destroyed the rolls of the election, thus making a new election necessary. The gendarmes fired on the mob, shooting three persons fatally and wounding several others. At the important market town of Altarada a sanguinary conflict took place between the police and the people. The former were in large force, the government having sent a considerable number from other places in anticipation of trouble. The police used firearms freely, and in the end they succeeded in driving the populace from the scene of the conflict. The worst disturbances occurred in the market towns and other centers resorted to by the rural population, who were aroused by the report that the government designed to take away some of their ancient privileges and abolish the local autonomy of the country districts.

ENGLISH AND FRENCH.

The Ottawa Separate School Board Meets a Difficulty.

OTTAWA, Feb. 1.—There is trouble here between the English and French members of the separate school board over the fact that in some of the schools in charge of the Christian Brothers there is no English taught. The inspector of schools has written the board that if this is not remedied he will report the matter to the Minister of Education and stop the Government grant. The secretary of the French committee of the board admitted to the TIMES correspondent to-day that in some of the French schools there was no English taught. There is likely to be serious trouble over the matter.

VANCOUVER NOTES.

The Beatrice's Rough Trip—Machine Shops Closed Down.

VANCOUVER, Feb. 1.—The sealer Beatrice, which left here on the 5th ult., returned yesterday a good deal the worse for the wear. She went south to San Diego and hunted seals northward. She experienced terrible weather all the time, and succeeded in catching only 22 seals. Off Cape Flattery she lost her boats, and had to return for repairs and refitting.

The Vancouver foundry and machine works have closed down pending the new arrangements going into effect, which will be in about one month.

Shot His Friend in a Duel.

BERLIN, Feb. 1.—A great sensation has been caused in this city by a fatal duel between two well known physicians. Dr. Malss has long been known as the intimate friend and associate of Dr. Siebert. The two belonged to excellent families, and moved in the highest society. They were together so much that their intimacy was a subject of remark, and they were sometimes spoken of as Damon and Pythias. Both doctors attended a public ball in the Philharmonic Hall, and while there they quarrelled, it is said, in regard to a woman to whom Dr. Malss paid unusual attention. Dr. Siebert made some illusion to the matter that Malss did not take in good part, and a tart rejoinder provoked irritation and at length insulting language. The result was a challenge to a duel. The two men met with pistols and seconds. When the word was given to fire Malss aimed in the air. Dr. Siebert shot directly at his antagonist, and the bullet penetrated the side of Malss, who died shortly afterwards. When Dr. Siebert saw the fate of his former friend he was overcome with horror, and tried to revive him, but he was already dead. Siebert gave himself up to the police. Dr. Malss had a widowed mother at Wiesbaden, who is overwhelmed with grief for the loss of her son.

Steamship Elder Ashore.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—The steamer Elder, from New York for Bremen, is ashore on Atherfield rocks, nine miles west of Ventnor, Isle of Wight. It is believed all on board are safe. Life boats are endeavoring to reach the vessel.

As this cable message is forwarded the gale is increasing in violence and heavy seas are continually breaking over the Elder. Several tugs and life boats from Ventnor, Yarmouth, Chale, St. Catharines and other places managed to reach the Elder, and are doing everything possible to assist the steamer, but the situation is becoming more critical every hour. The tugs and life boats managed to take off the mails, and have landed them at Atherfield. From this fact it is believed the passengers are all safe.

The Elder is of 2950 tons and 5200 horse-power. She was built at Glasgow in 1883 by John Elder & Co., and is considered in every way to be a first-class vessel. She has four decks, is bark-rigged, and was last surveyed in February, 1891.

H.M.S. Victoria Ashore.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—A dispatch from Athens says that H.M.S. Victoria, one of the most powerful ships in the British navy, is ashore in a dangerous position on the Greek coast, and that H.M.S. Edinburgh and a number of tugs and lighters have left Malta in order to try and pull the Victoria off. H.M.S. Victoria is the flagship of the Mediterranean squadron, commanded by Vice-Admiral Sir George Tryon, K.C.B. She is built of steel and was launched in 1887. She has 18 inches of armor, and carries two 111 ton guns, one 29 ton gun and 12 5 ton guns in addition to her rapid fire batteries. The Victoria is of 10,400 tons displacement, 12,000 indicated horsepower and is capable of steaming about 17 knots per hour. In point of size and fighting capacity there are few if any ships in the world of greater strength than the Victoria.

Portugal's Financial Distress.

LISBON, Jan. 30.—The Government to-day introduced a bill imposing on official salaries taxes varying from 5 to 20 per cent., and increasing property and other taxes. Many economic reforms are proposed. The preamble contains a plain statement of the condition of Portugal's finances, placing the deficit at 10,000 milreis, the floating debt at 23,000,000, and the aggregate of governmental advances to financial institutions, at 13,000,000.

Anti-Foreign Troubles in China.

SHANGHAI, Jan. 30.—Telegrams of a disquieting nature have been received here from Ichang, Chungking and the Yangtsekiang river. A state of great hostility is being shown towards foreigners, and it is feared that further trouble will follow. The British gunboat Esk has been stationed at Ichang, and the natives have shown a menacing attitude toward that vessel.

THE ANSWER TO CHILE.

BLAINE SAYS EVERYTHING IS ALL RIGHT.

Ten Alaska Miners Supposed to be Lost—Russian Refugees Arriving in New Orleans—Compensation for the Members of the Andrews Opera Co.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—The following is the reply sent by Secretary Blaine to the Chilean note of apology of the 25th instant:

Department of State, Washington, D. C., January 30, 1892. To Egan, Minister at Santiago—I am directed by the President to acknowledge the receipt of Senor Pereira's dispatch of the 25th inst. It has been communicated to Congress, and has given great pleasure to the people of the United States and to the Executive Department, as it restores the correspondence between the two republics to a basis of cordiality, and makes, as he believes, a full and honorable adjustment of all unsettled matters easily attainable. The President notes with gratification the expression of regret for and condonation of the assault upon the sailors of the Baltimore afforded by Mr. Pereira, and congratulates the Chilean Government upon the frank and ample withdrawal of the Matta circular and upon the spirit of justice displayed toward Minister Egan. You will assure the Chilean Government that the President will be glad to meet in the most generous spirit these friendly overtures. Believing that the subject of reparation for the assault upon the seamen of the Baltimore is now capable of adjustment between the two governments by the usual diplomatic methods, the President postpones for the present any discussion of the suggestions made by Senor Pereira as to the use of other methods, not doubting that the sense of justice of Chile will enable the two governments to speedily and honorably make a full end of the whole matter. (Signed.) BLAINE.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—A dispatch from Santiago, Chile, to the London Times says that the Chilean congress has adjourned after passing a bill allowing the president to borrow twenty-five million dollars in order to withdraw notes issued by Balmaceda. Public opinion in Chile is satisfied with the course of the Chilean government relative to the dispute with the United States and the press leaves it to the American people and to other countries to judge of the rights and wrongs of the dispute. Interest centres in the precedent which the United States is preparing solemnly to lay down for itself.

Indian Soldiers in U.S. Army.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—A special from Washington to the Herald says: Indian soldiers are a success. Major Theodore Shawan, assistant adjutant-general, who has just returned from an extensive tour of inspection of posts where these new soldiers are stationed, gives the most satisfactory account of the progress these braves are making in their new duties. Despite the reports telegraphed east from Whipple barracks and several other western posts about the intoxication and disorderly condition of the Indian troops Major Shawan says there is much less drunkenness among the bucks than among the whites. He says he investigated these reports carefully and found them greatly exaggerated. The drunkenness of a single Indian was the only foundation for the report from Whipple barracks that the whole troop was drunk and on the rampage. A careful watch of the habits of the Indian soldiers has been kept by the officers in charge since the beer privilege was given them at the canteens and with rare exceptions there has been no abuse of that privilege among them. On the whole the War Department is thoroughly satisfied with the Indians and every effort will be made to get the full quota contemplated.

Ten Alaska Miners Missing.

PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 30.—The steamer from Alaska arrived to-night. She reports the probable loss of ten miners who, it is feared, have perished of hunger or cold at Lituya bay. Last April Morris Orton and S.O. Wheelock, of Juneau, accompanied by eight other miners, left Juneau on the schooner Charlie, for Lituya bay, taking eight months' provisions. The party was to return in November. Nothing having been heard from them great uneasiness was felt, for they are in a frozen region, but where it is impossible to get food and help. The people at Juneau appealed to Captain Maynard, of the United States warship Pita, at Sitka, to go the relief of the missing men. Captain Maynard declined on account of the great risk to his vessel and because he thought the men were beyond the reach of human aid. A mass-meeting was held at Juneau, the governor was appealed to and a relief expedition was organized and sent out in a sailing vessel with supplies in search of the lost miners. There is but little hope of rescuing them. The winter at Lituya bay is long and severe and the probability is that all of the ten missing men have perished.

Burned to Death.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 1.—Mrs. Robert Atwell, of Cherokee, set her dress on fire while warming herself by a stove a few days ago, and has since died of her injuries. She was a bride, and only seventeen years old.

Two Are Yet Adrift.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The men on the lost tug boat Edwin Webster, which was blown out to sea with four dumping scows early Tuesday morning during the severe hurricane, have arrived safely at port. The Webster has gone to the bottom. The men were taken off the tug boat 22 miles off the Highlands of Jersey. She was about to sink, and filled and went down shortly after the last man had been taken off. The crew of the tug was rescued by the schooner Everett Webster, which carried them to Vineyard Haven. Sixteen of the eighteen castaways have now been reported safe. The two men on scow No. 5 have not yet been heard from, but it is thought that their chances of rescue are good.

THE MEXICAN REVOLUTIONIST.

Catarino Garza, who is trying to foment a rebellion against the Mexican Government, and who was reported last week to have crossed into Mexico at the head of a force of several thousand men, is a native of Mexico, but was reared at Brownsville, Tex., where he received a fair education. He attended the University of Mexico, and upon his graduation entered the army. An act of insubordination caused him to flee to the Texas side of the Rio Grande. At Palo Pinto he married the daughter of a wealthy Mexican-Spaniard and started the paper in which he began his assault upon the Mexican Government. At Rio Grande City he shot a man named Sebree, and, it is said, killed two customs inspectors. He himself was seriously wounded in the affray. After his recovery he went to Laredo, Tex., and soon became involved in a quarrel over General Martinez, who was afterward assassinated. Garza next appeared at Duval, Tex., where he started another paper assailing the Mexican Government. He turned up next at the head of his present expedition. Garza is not over thirty-five years of age and is a man of splendid physique, six feet three in height, and of fine military carriage. A reward of $300,000 has been offered for his head.

CHAPLEAU TALKS.

The Movable Minister Expresses Views on Reciprocity.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—J. A. Chapleau, of Quebec, Canada, Minister of Customs, is registered at the Brunswick, having come to New York to take a needed rest from cares of state. Mr. Chapleau has just been appointed Minister of Customs, having been transferred from the office of Secretary of State. "The Conservatives still have a majority of about 28 in Parliament. Three recent elections at Kingston, Lincoln and Halton, have returned two Conservatives and one Liberal, thus making no change in the relative strength of the two parties," said Mr. Chapleau to a reporter. "Premier Abbott is reorganizing the Cabinet, and is proceeding carefully. Parliament meets next month, and it will be an interesting session. Canada did not suffer so much by the McKinley tariff as we feared. We are disposing of our products in England mostly, and our exports for the first half of the past fiscal year were nearly $9,000,000 over the corresponding period of the previous year. The exports of all other products have increased except lumber, and the decrease in that article was owing to the labor troubles and decreased output. Probably we have a protective tariff which imposes about half the average duty called for by the McKinley Act. The Dominion would prefer reciprocity with the United States, and we hope to bring it about some day. By the bye, a curious fact has come to light in the matter of Canadian barley. The McKinley bill increased the duty 10 cents a bushel but the States continue to take our grain for malting purposes. New York State farmers now tell me that they are receiving lower prices than they did previous to the passage of the recent tariff law in the States."

Russian Refugees in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 1.—The families of twenty-seven Russian refugees, consisting of 126 persons, arrived here yesterday from New York. A committee of leading Hebrews met them, secured accommodations for them and will find work for them. The Hebrews of New Orleans organized the committee for the relief of the Russian refugees, about a month ago and have raised and are still raising money to provide for the refugees. The committee will distribute the immigrants in the country as it can find accommodation for them. As soon as all are provided for the committee will make a requisition on New York for another party.

Actors in Luck.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 1.—All the members of the Andrews Opera Company, who were injured in the recent accident at Brainerd, have effected a settlement with the Northern Pacific and, with the money thus secured, expect to reorganize the company within three weeks and take the road again. E. Andrews received $5000 for the death of his wife and $2000 for personal injuries. George Andrews received $1000 and Jessie Andrews, his wife, $500; Chas. Andrews, $1000; Florence J., $600. All the other people settled for sums in the neighborhood of $250 each. It is not thought Mrs. Jay can possibly live. The one chance for life lies in the amputation of the right arm. Blood poisoning has set in.

More Trouble in Brazil.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—A dispatch from Rio Janeiro says another attempt has been made to depose the governor of the province of Sao Paulo, Brazil, but the uprising was again a failure.

NANAIMO NEWS.

The Perjury Case Again Enlarged---The Miners' Physician's Salary---Robbery.

NANAIMO, Feb. 1.—The perjury case against Tully Boyce was again brought up for hearing before Mr. J. P. Planta, S.M., on Saturday. A great deal of evidence was produced by the defense to prove that Mr. Boyce did not utter the words attributed to him by the prosecutor. The case was adjourned till the evening, and the prosecution asked for a committal. No evidence was produced by the prosecution, so Mr. Planta remanded the case until next Saturday to admit the defense to produce a few more witnesses.

THE MEDICAL REPORT.

A meeting of the New V.C.Co.'s employees was held in the Institute Hall on Saturday for the purpose of receiving the report of the medical committee, who were appointed to confer with Dr. Præger. The committee reported that Dr. Præger stated that, considering the heavy expense he was under, also the great distance he had to travel and the almost incessant labor, he could not accept any reduction in salary. The secretary then read the financial report of the medical relief fund, which showed that the sum devoted to the accident fund was insufficient to meet the requirements. This brought on a heated discussion concerning the advisability of decreasing the doctor's salary to 60 per cent. The majority of the meeting were in favor of continuing the doctor's services and a motion made and carried left matters precisely as they were six months ago. It is very singular that a matter of so much importance should be adjusted by about three per cent. of the employees.

ROBBERY AT WELLINGTON.

A man named William Quinlan was brought up in the Nanaimo police court on Saturday, charged with stealing a watch and chain valued at $45, from Leighton's jewelry store at Wellington. It appears the above store answers also the purposes of a barber and store while the prisoner was awaiting his turn to be shaved he purloined the watch which was hanging in the window. He admitted the theft and informed the constable where the watch could be found. The case was adjourned until Tuesday next to come up at Wellington.

BIRTHS, DEATHS AND MARRIAGES.

Mr. M. Bray, registrar for Nanaimo city and district gives the following figures for births, deaths and marriages for the city and district for the year 1891. Births—Males, 106; females, 115; total 221. Deaths—Males, 84; females, 52; total, 136. Marriages, 77.

DYE WORKS.

Mr. E. H. Fole has taken the premises lately vacated by Anderson & Tukster and intends opening a dye and cleaning works there which he expects to have in operation by next week. Mr. Fole is a practical dyer and understands every branch of the business so that it is expected he will make this new industry a paying one. At present the residents of the city and district are put to considerable inconvenience by the delay experienced in sending their articles to other cities along the coast to be dyed, and they will, therefore, look upon this enterprise of Mr. Fole's as a boon generally.

LITTLE HAPPENINGS

The stabbing affray at Wellington has resulted in the defendant being bound over to keep the peace.

Real estate is again taking a move in the city and many valuable pieces of property have been turned over.

The firm of Hawthornwaite & Co. are endeavoring to obtain premises for the opening of a branch office here.

The fire department will not give a masquerade ball this year on account of being unable to obtain the dresses.

Frozen to Death.

NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 1.—Russell Ruscoe, 80 years old, and his sister, known as Aunt Mary, nearly 85 years old, lived for some time alone in a hut near the woods of the Bold Hill district. They were supported for years by the charity of the neighbors. On Thursday a resident of the neighborhood went to the hut with food and found the old man sitting dead and frozen in a chair, his hands clasped in front of him. The sister was moving helplessly about bewildered. She was put in bed, a fire was started in a stove and the old man's body was prepared for burial and left there and the visitor went away. Yesterday neighbors visited the hut and found the old woman dead and frozen in bed. Both bodies were buried this afternoon.

De Brazza's Advance.

The correspondent at Brazzaville, in the French Congo, of the Paris Eclair, declares that M. de Brazza is making preparations on a great scale for an advance on Lake Tchad. He says that the explorer for the last two years has been working in silence and hopes to reap all the glory of the enterprise for himself. Hence the formidable nature of his preparations, and hence also the opposition which he offered to Mr. Crampel's plan. By various means he has managed to collect large quantities of food supplies, medicines, arms and ammunition on the banks of the Sangha and the Oubanghai. He possesses rails, heavy guns, and portable boats, and he has recruited detachments of 150, 200 and 250 laplots (a sort of native militia of Senegal), whom he has brought by different routes to Brazzaville, where a small army of 1200 men is now concentrated, ready to march on Lake Tchad. Of this number 600 Senegalese are armed with modern breechloaders. The contingent also contains 60 Europeans, and the expedition is provisioned for two years. The French Colonial Office denies this story in part. It says that De Brazza is marching towards the upper reaches of the Sangha, but that his forces will certainly not exceed 200 men. This does not prove that the other account is not true.

What Is Good Baking Powder?

It is a well known fact that carbonate of ammonia is used by bakers in the preparation of the finest and most wholesome bread and cake, and has been from time immemorial. It is among the oldest and at the same time most healthful constituents of baking powders. It is all evolved in gas by the heat of the oven, and leaves no trace of itself in the food, and it is this that gives it its great value as a leavening agent in the opinions of the physicians.—New York Journal.

Quite a sensation was caused in the division court at Ottawa during the case of Masters vs. Ross, by the plaintiff, who is a barrister, asking Miss Ryan, who is an adverse witness, if she was not a Roman Catholic. She said she was. Then he asked if the church did not teach that the end justified the means. Mr. Frank Latchford, a barrister not connected with the case, rose and, as a Roman Catholic, protested against the question. He indignantly asserted that no Catholic believed, nor did the church teach such a doctrine. An intense sensation ensued. Mr. Green, barrister for Mr. Ross, joined in the protest, but the question was allowed. The witness denied any belief in such doctrine.

Hon. John Haggart, in a speech at St. Catharines, referred to the charges of immorality in connection with young ladies in the post office department. It was said that the Postmaster-General had been immoral. It was charged that certain young ladies in the post office department were absent at certain times from duty on account of sickness, and it was insinuated that he had specially favored them. No one in the House had ever said anything wrong of intimacy by him, but it became insinuated through the country that of all the crimes ever done by Conservatives, the worst were the immoralities of the Postmaster-General. He had denied it again and again, and was willing to be tried by any court in the land.

KASLO CITY

The Centre of the Great Kootenay Mining District in B.C.

This young and thriving City is situated on Kootenay Lake at the mouth of Kaslo River, within close proximity to the famous Kaslo and Slocan mines.

The discoveries during the present year of numerous mines of remarkably rich ore and great width on Kaslo river and east of Slocan Lake are well known to the public. They have attracted the attention of capitalists and miners all over the continent, and there is no question that these mines, which are tributary to KASLO CITY, will receive more attention than those of any other section of Kootenay.

A spacious hotel has been built for the accommodation of travelers. Stores and other buildings have also been erected. The townsite is being cleared and streets graded so as to forward the large amount of building that will be in progress as soon as material is secured for construction. A trail has been built to the mines, which will be replaced by a wagon road as soon as the work can be prosecuted. The grade to the mines is an easy one. An application for a charter to build a railway line into the mines from Kaslo will be made at the coming session of the Legislature. Everything is being done that circumstances will permit to give easy access to the mines and furnish supplies for the miners. KASLO CITY will have a large population this summer. It will become the supply depot for the richest mining section yet discovered in British Columbia. Unlike many mountain towns, it is most favorably situated on a gentle slope from the waters of a sheltered bay on Kootenay Lake, and is supplied for domestic and manufacturing purposes, by a large stream of pure cold water.

If you wish to participate in the profits that enchanced values will bring, don't fail to invest in Kaslo City. Lots are on sale at the offices of all the Leading Real Estate Brokers in the Province.

REV. C. H. SPURGEON.

After many months' struggling with disease and pain the great Baptist preacher has passed away, mourned by a countless host of friends and admirers. The story of Mr. Spurgeon's life has already been given at some length in the TIMES, and the importance of his work has on many occasions been adverted to. Only a man of commanding ability, intense earnestness and deep religious conviction could have carried on such a colossal work and exerted so mighty an influence. His success as a preacher gave him prominence before the world, his printed sermons being familiar to multitudes of people far from the scene of his labors. But equally important with his pulpit work, though less known to the public, was that carried on through the medium of the Pastors' College, the Colportage Association and other institutions founded by Mr. Spurgeon and inspired by his earnestness and vigor. The religious world seldom loses two such men in a brief space of time as Cardinal Manning and Rev. Mr. Spurgeon.

WHO IS THE OFFENDER?

A few days ago the TIMES felt constrained to allude to the fact that some individual had usurped the powers and functions of the Board of Trustees by practically appointing a principal of the High School. It is plainly apparent from the circumstances that Mr. Burns was instructed by some person to come on here from St. Catharines at least a week before the Board had made any appointment, that gentleman being in fact on his way to Victoria while the trustees were making a choice among the applicants. This action was very unfair and very disrespectful to both the members of the Board and Mr. Burns. The former gentlemen were made ridiculous before the public by being asked to go through the form of choosing a teacher when already a choice had been made for them by some kindly disposed Mentor. They have, in short, been told practically that they are not capable of selecting a proper teacher, but must have one selected for them. Mr. Burns was likewise unfairly treated and placed in an awkward position, because the Board's choice of another teacher might have caused him the loss of his former position and given him a journey to Victoria for nothing. It is quite plain that some hocus-pocus means was used to get Mr. Cogswell out of the way, and even with Mr. Cogswell removed from the path there was no security that the Board would not select some other person for the place. The Board and the public have the right to know who it was that presumed to take all the trustees' powers into his own hands and play the petty dictator. No attempt at explanation has been made so far, and it is quite time that the offender, or offenders, should offer one.

CHAPLEAU AND McKINLEY.

Mr. Chapleau seems to have been unburdening himself of some remarkable opinions in New York, as shown by a dispatch printed elsewhere. His statement that Canada's exports to England had greatly increased, thus preventing serious injury from the McKinley tariff, is quite in harmony with the utterances of other Ministers and of the Tory press. Sir John Thompson said at Halifax: "The McKinley act, when it came into force, was an injury to the export trade of Canada so far as the United States were concerned, but it had not been a national injury, as the products of the country are now being shipped across the Atlantic in far greater quantities than ever before, and the farmers' exports to Great Britain had increased enormously." The queer part of the business is that the Government should still profess anxiety to secure reciprocity with the United States if the States market is of so little importance to us. Why do they not drop the futile negotiations which have been hanging fire for so long? Ministerial utterances and Ministerial actions are entirely at variance so far as reciprocity is concerned.

The plain truth of the matter is that the Government and the Government organs are trying to deceive the public. The British market was quite as open to Canadians and offered quite as many advantages before the McKinley tariff was imposed as it does now. If more Canadian products now seek that market it is because they are forced to do so by practical exclusion from their old markets, and the longer carriage represents so much loss to the Canadian farmer. The Government's contention regarding trade with Britain is thus met by an eastern contemporary:—"The McKinley tariff came into effect on the 1st of October, 1890, three months after the close of the Canadian fiscal year of 1889-90. The aggregate trade with the United States in that year was $92,814,783, against $91,743,935 with Great Britain. During the last fiscal year, covering nine months of the McKinley act, our trade with Great Britain was almost exactly $91,000,000 while that with the United States exceeded $94,000,000. Our experience under the McKinley tariff, therefore, notwithstanding the prohibitive nature of a number of its provisions, is that our trade with the United States is increasing and with Great Britain falling off." Evidently Sir John Thompson and Mr. Chapleau will have to revise their figures.

Finally Mr. Chapleau undertakes to deal with the barley question, apparently with the idea of showing that Canadian barley has not been hurt by the McKinley tariff. On this point no further evidence is needed than the Empire's barley quotations. In last Monday's Empire the Buffalo barley market is thus reported:—

No. 1 Canada, held firm at 89c; No. 2 western, 66½c; fancy western, 68 to 68¼c; state, good to choice, 65 to 70c; Michigan, 60 to 67c.

In the same issue the Toronto market quotations are thus given:—

Barley—Rather more offered and buyers were less anxious to purchase anything excepting No. 1 at 53c cash and No. 2 at 48c. Lower grades quiet but firmly held.

No. 1 Canada barley sells in Toronto at 53 cents and at Buffalo at 89 cents on the same day, a difference of 36 cents a bushel. The McKinley duty is 30 cents, and the freight about six cents, which accounts for the difference. If the Ontario farmer is not hurt by the McKinley tariff, there must be something wrong with the Empire's market reports.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Mr. Metcalfe, we are informed, has telegraphed to Lady Macdonald that Kingston had been true to Sir John. "Jim's" modesty is very becoming to him.

Hon. Mr. Tupper's judgment is that Mr. Wilmot, who is to leave Ottawa for Victoria on Wednesday, is the "best qualified official of the Department" to take a place on the fisheries commission. British Columbia's judgment will be that if this is the case the minister should have selected some person outside the Department.

A Montreal dispatch of Jan. 28 reads as follows:

Edward Farrar, of the Toronto Globe, arrived here last night from Kingston and proceeded to the Windsor Hotel, where he met Sir Richard Cartwright. Both afterwards had a long conference with Laurier, the Liberal leader, when the attitude which the Liberal leader should assume toward Mercier was fully discussed. The conference is expected to result in an important declaration from Laurier, who will commence a tour through Ontario next week. Sir Richard and Mr. Farrar returned west at midnight.

The following paragraph appears in the Winnipeg Free Press:—

The butchers of the coast cities find it necessary to widen the field in which to purchase beef for their markets, and have arranged to get a supply in Winnipeg. Messrs. Porter & Son of Victoria, have contracted for 400 head of stall fed cattle, and the B.C. Cattle Co. for 600 head, to be shipped to them in the months of March, April and May next.

A most singular spectacle it is to see butchers bringing cattle all the way from Winnipeg to a country where beef can be so easily produced as in British Columbia. The freight charges on cattle from that distant point should allow a handsome margin of profit to local stock raisers. A little energy and enterprise would seem to be needed. The Kamloops Sentinel cites the case of one man whose example will be followed. It says:—

There are large numbers of cattle being fed in the interior, and the butchers of the coast markets do not need to go so far for their beef as late accounts would indicate. Mr. Charles Pennie, of Pennieston, near Savonas, is fattening over four hundred head of steers for the spring market.

Some of the Tory papers are quoting with warm approval the following utterance of Sir John Thompson at Halifax:

Applaud Richelieu to your heart's content. We can afford to make you a present of Richelieu; it is the home of the influence of McGreevyism. Out of the 200 votes controlled by the Navigation Company, of which McGreevy and Connolly are the guiding spirits, the Government did not get ten. We lost those votes, but we gained in every parish throughout the country. If it is true that we lost Richelieu because of the union of Gritism and McGreevyism, our opponents are welcome to it, and all the satisfaction they can get out of it.

That was all very well as an afterthought, but the country would have been inclined to give Sir John more credit if he had not surrendered to Connollyism—which is the same as McGreevyism—when the Kingston election came along. In spite of Sir John's heroics, the Government felt that they could not afford to lose another seat, so the Connollys were given their money. It is readily to be feared that Sir John Thompson is a hypocrite.

FOOTBALL.

VICTORIA CLUB VS. CORRIG COLLEGE.

On Saturday at Beacon Hill a match was played between an eleven of the Victoria Association Football Club and Corrig College. Neither side was in full force, and the elevens had to be made up from the onlookers. In the first half the Club pressed the College backs and though repeated shots were tried, no point was scored owing to the splendid play of Field at back, and G. Wilson in goal. The College once all but scored a goal, the forwards getting away by combined rush. After half time the game was of a more even nature, the ball travelling rapidly from goal to goal, and it was not long before the Club scored a point, the College goal keeper being forced through the goal. Shortly afterwards Cartwright almost equalized matters, the ball passing barely a foot from the uprights. When time was called the score was unaltered, and thus the game ended in a win for the Club by one goal to nil. The game was very close throughout, though the College forwards seemed to throw away their chances of scoring and the Club had a heavier eleven than was expected. For the College, G. Wilson, A. Field and F. Green played very well, none of the forwards being up in form; while for the Club, Selkirk, Martin and Lorimer shared to advantage.

To introduce it among the farmers, it is being sold at $25 a ton, and its effect as a manure are said to be such as to produce a wonderfully luxuriant growth. Mr. Ladner is having some experiments made in the refining of fish oil, of which he will turn out in the neighborhood of 1000 gallons for lubricating and tannery uses this year.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE

THE HOUSE SETTLING DOWN TO BUSINESS.

The Address in Reply to the Speech From the Throne Promises the Usual Fidelity in the Discharge of the Legislative Duties.

The Speaker took the chair a few minutes past 2 o'clock this afternoon, and as there was no clergyman to say prayers, business was at once proceeded with.

Mr. Kellie presented a petition re the Kootenay water works, asking for incorporation. Also re incorporation of Nelson Electric Light Co.

Mr. Eberts—In regard to the Esquimalt water works.

Mr. Hall moved the address in reply. In doing so he referred in feeling terms to the loss the country sustained in the death of Sir John Macdonald, "that able mariner of the craft of state." He dealt with the death of the late Duke of Clarence. Coming to local affairs, he desired to give credit to the enlightened policy of the present Provincial Government for the year of solid prosperity that had been experienced. We had truly to congratulate ourselves on prosperity and solid progress. There was no reason to fear for the future of B.C. so long as this Government lived and its present policy was pursued. The Kootenay mines had proved rich, and soon the development there would surprise even the most sanguine. Railway enterprise had not fallen back, and it was to be hoped that there would be still more. It was also satisfactory to note the solid state of the province's credit, another fact for which the Government deserved praise. The act of the Government in keeping all the arable land for settlers was a very good move. What we want is the arable land for settlers and settlers only. The crofter movement was also referred to as a desirable step in the cultivation of our deep sea fisheries. He prophesied that at an early date the fisheries of B. C. would be able to supply not only our inland cities, but those of the whole coast. There was no doubt but that the House would give its cordial support to any measure that the Government would introduce in this connection. Referring to the sealing question, Mr. Hall said that 39,530 skins had been caught by British Columbia vessels last year, representing in money over half a million dollars. This is entirely the result of the labor of our seal hunters. Half a million dollars is a great deal of money to us, and he hoped that in the solution to which it appears that this question is now coming, justice would be done the British Columbia sealers. Mr. Hall had pleasure in moving the address in reply, which, as usual, was simply an echo of the speech from the throne.

Mr. Rogers in seconding the address, said there were a few points which he would like to touch. They all knew that Cariboo has been one of the chief sources of wealth to the Province, and he believed it will continue so. The Forks of the Quesnelle gravel mining was an industry of a magnitude hardly understood. The opening of William's Creek by hydraulic work was another big venture which will undoubtedly result in a rich harvest. Slough Creek development was another work which will yield a golden harvest. With regard to railways, these will also do much to help revive mining in Cariboo. The carrying of freight costs an enormous amount now, and were a railway to be built it would permit of the carrying of the freight and the consequent development of mines which cannot be worked now. He hoped that something practical would be done in this direction the coming season.

Hon. Mr. Beaven followed, criticising the Government's programme.

The Thunder Hill Mine.

The following report has been received by the owners of the Thunder Hill mine, in East Kootenay:

THUNDER HILL MINE, Jan. 15, 1892.

I beg to report progress on the mine as follows: The lower crosscut is in 89 feet and the upper one 145 feet. I have stopped work on the latter for the present, and am opening up on the ore south from a point about 50 feet in on the lower cut. We have already exposed such an immense body of ore-bearing quartz by our open cuts, that it now becomes more important to develope the most promising ore bodies, by means of lateral cuts, north and south, than to continue the surface cut. I will resume that work, however, as soon as I can get more men.

I send a box of ore most of it, including the large piece, from the last shot on the south drift. I have sent some samples to Mr. Harvey for assay, and will let you know the results.

Of this the fire at Gribbles, making an estimated loss of $2000, and the blaze on Johnson street Saturday night at a cost of about $1500, are the two most serious items.

For Free Trade.

In the course of his sermon Sunday night in St. Andrew's church, Rev. P. McF. McLeod declared that the establishment of tariff barriers between nations was contrary to the teachings of the Bible and Christianity. It might appear to be beneficial for a time, and the greater the country and more varied its resources the longer the delusion would last. The every-man-for-himself doctrine was false economy.

His Honor, the police magistrate, had to deal with the following during January: Drunk, 34; larceny, 7; assault, 10; in possession of an intoxicant, 4; deserters from ships, 8; beating passages, 2; vagrancy, 2; threatening to kill, 3; gambling, 1; insulting language, 1; infringement of the Public Moral By-laws, 10. Over $500 in fines was taken in, the greater portion of it being from women of questionable houses.

Fourth Annual Meeting.

At the fourth annual meeting of the Victoria Building Society held on Saturday night, the annual report published in the TIMES several days ago, was read and unanimously adopted. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, W. D. McKillican; vice-president, R. Erskine; secretary and treasurer, A. St. G. Flint; trustees—J. F. Fell, C. D. Mason, R. Erskine, W. D. McKillican, W. W. Northcott and Chas. Kent.

Quite a Surprise.

Quite a surprise was in store for those who attended Mr. James Mortimer's lime-light exhibition on Saturday evening. It was brought about through someone in the audience knocking up against the lantern, causing a leakage and combining of the various gases, an explosion that spread general dismay being the result. The chief damage done was the fright experienced by the audience, the breakage of the windows and the destruction of the lantern which was an entirely new instrument.

Another Pioneer Crosses the Divide.

Harry Goldstead, of Barkerville, known throughout Cariboo as "Bismarck," died at the Royal Hospital, Kamloops, on the 29th inst., of consumption, aged 62 years. He is remembered by many of the pioneers in the city as one of the most genial characters who worked in the Cariboo diggings in early days. He was a native of Germany and came to British Columbia in '62.

Moving Quickly.

The sale of goat rugs at the Sehl, Hastie, Erskine Co.'s store can only last a few days longer, as the quantity is limited and they are being sold quickly. Persons not having secured some already had better send in their orders or call and select the number wanted before they are all gone. *

Again Remanded.

Captain Abel Douglas was up in the provincial court to-day, charged with assaulting Mr. T. G. Raynor. Robert Ward, J. P., being the only justice of the peace present the case had to be remanded as it required two J. P.'s to try the case. This is another instance of the necessity of a magistrate for the provincial court. The case will come up again to-morrow.

Temperance Lectures.

At the close of the regular services in the Pandora avenue Methodist church last evening, Mr. James B. Bushell, P.G.C.T. of Washington, delivered a short temperance lecture. He will speak this evening at Spring Ridge, to-morrow evening at Temperance Hall, Pandora street, and on Wednesday evening at Victoria West, under the auspices of the I.O.G.T.

Dean, Geo. Doughty, R. J. Styles, C. Maynard and C. Monk.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

CUTTING DOWN EXPENSES.

Commissioner Lynn Receives One Month's Notice---Other Changes.

As a result of the meeting of the City Council held on Saturday night two of the civic officials have received notice that their services will not be required after this month. Mr. W. L. Lynn, who has been filling two positions, those of Water and Street Commissioner, received the following letter:

JAN. 30, 1892.

W. L. Lynn, Esq., Street Commissioner and Acting Water Commissioner.

SIR—I have the honor to inform you that the City Council has decided to combine in future the offices of City Surveyor, Street Commissioner and Water Commissioner in one department, consisting of two offices or positions, viz., that of the City Engineer and his clerk, and I am instructed to notify you that one month from date your services as Street Commissioner and Acting Water Commissioner will be no longer required.

I have the honor to be Sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) W. J. DOWLER, C.M.C.

The Council has not as yet decided as to who shall fill the triple position.

Mr. Thos. Mathews, clerk to the City Surveyor, has also been dismissed the Council having decided that it is necessary to have a surveyor for that position, Mr. Mathews not being one.

It was decided to change the amount to $720 set apart for an assistant for the city assessor. Mr. Scowcroft, the present incumbent, has been receiving $1200.

The wages of S. Humpreys, in the city clerk's office will be raised from $300 to $400. Thos. Deerberg, formerly road tax collector at $600 will collect the provincial revenue tax as well and will receive $800 per annum. The foremen of the fire department were raised from $20 to $25 per month. Other changes will be considered by the council to-morrow evening.

Firecracker Fines.

Song Sing, Ah Fung and Linn Fao appeared before Police Magistrate Belyea at the police court this morning, to answer to the charge of setting off firecrackers within the city. They admitted the offence, and were each assessed $5, which they paid forthwith in gold. Annie, an Indian woman, was arraigned before the court for having liquor in her possession. She admitted the impeachment and will spend two months in jail in default of paying a $25 fine. Another drunk failed to appear and a $10 bail was forfeited. Joseph Hunter, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, pleaded guilty and was taxed $20 and costs, the court imposing the minimum penalty. Two local merchants, charged with fighting in the street, pleaded not guilty. Evidence on the case, however, proved that a scuffle had taken place between the accused, one of whom was not sober. The magistrate discharged the information against one and imposed a fine of $10 on the erring second party, the fine to stand pending his behavior in the future.

First Anniversary.

The James Bay Methodist Sunday School has just been in existence one year, yesterday being its anniversary Sunday. The annual report read at the meeting yesterday afternoon shows very satisfactory progress, there being 137 pupils enrolled and an average daily attendance of 99. Rev. Coverdale Watson and Messrs. J. B. Chantrell and Geo. Powell addressed the pupils and complimented them and their teachers on the progress they are making. Members of the school recited portions of the Scriptures and sang appropriate hymns. In the evening services were held in the James Bay Ward school, Rev. Mr. Watson preaching.

Tumbo Island Coal Co.

Mr. P. Watelet returned on Saturday from Tumbo Island, where he reports work well under way by the new company. Prospects at present are very favorable, several good specimens having been sent back to New York. The first shaft is ready to be sunk.

Mathews Dismissed.

Robert Ward, J. P., presided in the Provincial Court this morning, when the case of Thos. H. Mathews, charged with obtaining $500 under false pretenses, was called. Mr. Irving, who appeared for Mr. T. F. Sinclair, the prosecutor, asked that the defendant be discharged, it having been explained that the case arose out of an error. When Mr. Sinclair went to the registrar's office he found that the land was registered in A. Mathew's name, whereas he had purchased the land from Thos. H. Mathews. It was explained that A. Mathews had verbally authorized his father, Thos. H. Mathews, to sell the land, which he had done, but had failed to have the change registered. The mistake was rectified and the defendant discharged.

SATURDAY'S FIRE.

Scarcity of Water on Some of the Principal Streets of the City.

The residence of C. Thompson, Johnson street, between Quadra and Vancouver streets, was partially burned on Saturday night. The alarm was sent to the fire halls from J. Wrigglesworth's store and two lines of hose were laid in two minutes after the first tap of the bell from hydrants at the corners of Pandora street and Johnson street. In the locality where the fire occurred the street mains are too small, and it was fully ten minutes before the water passed through the hose. The streams were useless and would not reach the roof of the burning building. After a good deal of hard work the firemen succeeded in extinguishing the fire. The Pandora street car ran over the hose while the fire was burning and caused considerable delay in getting water. The street mains on Pandora and Johnson streets, above Douglas street, are two inches in diameter and the pressure is useless for extinguishing fires. Mr. Thompson's house was insured in the Guardian company for $1000 and the furniture in the Etna company for $800. The cause of the fire is unknown as the family was out and left everything safe about half an hour before the alarm was sent in.

Imperial Theatre.

This popular house will re-open about Feb. 8th with an almost entirely new company. In the meantime a force of workmen is busily engaged in refitting the stage generally. When the house was opened it was done on such short notice that the work was necessarily incomplete, and in putting on two plays each week no time was left in which to do the work properly. A complete system of lighting will be put in, also a fly gallery, gridiron and all other necessary adjuncts to the proper staging of all pieces.

Jumped the Fence.

The boy Van Horst, who was sent to the Reformatory several weeks ago by the police magistrate, made his escape this morning. This is the second time that boys have left that institution before their time was up. This time the youthful prisoner locked his keeper, Mr. Finlayson, in a room and climbed the fence. He had not been caught up to the time of going to press.

The New Brewery.

On Saturday, Mr. H. Steinman, the architect for the new brewery to be erected by the Victoria Brewing Company, opened the tenders. Although the contract is not yet signed it is understood that Messrs. McGregor & Jeeves' tender has been accepted. A description of the new building has appeared in these columns.

OUR OTTAWA LETTER.

THE GOVERNMENT'S WANT OF BACKBONE EXPOSED.

The Minister of Justice Preaches What he Does Not Practice—The Kingston Election Brings More Money to the Connollys—Kootenay Described, Etc., Etc.

From Our Own Correspondent.]

OTTAWA, Jan. 23.—Parliament has been summoned for the dispatch of business on the 25th of February. This is contrary to expectation, owing to the general elections in Quebec, but Premier Abbott has pursued this course with the idea of establishing an opinion in the country, but more particularly in Quebec, that he had nothing to do with the provincial embroglio now going on in Quebec. Those acquainted with the facts will scarcely be led astray by anything the Premier may do in this regard. The responsibility of Mr Mercier's dismissal is now laid on the shoulders of Mr. Abbott, and rightly so.

DID NOT CATCH LAURIER.

The reason of developing the boodling of Pacaud and Mercier by the Government at Ottawa before the Senate committee was with the sole idea of endeavoring to get Mr. Laurier implicated in the same. "Wait until Mr. Laurier speaks," was the question on the lips of every Conservative, "and he is bound to support Mr. Mercier, or the latter will knife him." Mr. Laurier has been heard from and he has done anything but support Mr. Mercier. Indeed, while he desires that Mr. Mercier ought to get a fair trial, with no favor, he does not think that so far it has been proved against him that he personally boodled. However, he condemns the Baie des Chaleurs transaction in its entirety as well as the issuing of letters of credit, and says that if corruption is proven against the Government then the Liberals must re-organize. Liberals, says Mr. Laurier, can afford to condemn boodling but it does not lie in the mouths of Conservatives, who have held power by corruption, to do so. As for the actions of Lieut.-Governor Angers Mr. Laurier was very severe in his denunciation of the same, holding that he acted in a wholly unconstitutional manner, and consequently ought to be condemned at the polls. Pressure has been brought to bear to get Mr. Mercier to resign but he has blankly refused to do so until the elections are over. It is just somewhat late in the day to swap horses, and probably the party is as well to stick to Mercier until the elections are over. There is a large section of the Liberal party who would like to see Mr. Joly once more at the head of affairs in the Province of Quebec. The position is by no means an enviable one, considering the financial condition of the province. An empty treasury and a load of debt, with little chance of further loans, or unloading on the Dominion, is a legacy which no prudent politician would be ambitious to tackle. But the province, if it is to be saved from utter bankruptcy and sound government established, needs such a man as Mr. Joly at the head of affairs, and supported by colleagues who would have retrenchment and reform as one of the main planks in their platform. If we judge the future by the past this can hardly be expected from Quebec politicians. They have been taught to enter the political field for what it would bring them financially and at certain intervals to look to Ottawa for ridding them of part of their money obligations. Their votes were generally withheld until such concessions were granted them. A thorough reformation is sadly needed in the province. The other provinces of the Dominion cannot afford to be always bled to keep up French Canada. This should be thoroughly understood once for all. In the meantime it is satisfactory to note that Mr. Laurier has come to Ontario to assist his party in the bye-elections and will not take any part in the general elections in Quebec. The Liberal leader cannot afford to support boodling and boodlers even at the risk of losing one or two followers in the House of Commons. The attitude he has taken in this matter has still more endeared him to his party, and it will aid materially in assisting him to hold his own in this province if, indeed, he does not make some gains, which is more than likely.

THE CONNOLLY PROSECUTIONS.

Sir John Thompson, Minister of Justice, has been called down from that high pedestial on which he placed himself in connection with the Connolly prosecutions. It will be remembered that Sir John said he was determined that this firm should not have one cent of money coming to them until such time as they gave up their books, in accordance with the order of the court. The books were conveyed to the United States so that they could not be used in the recent trials. It is about six months since any money was paid to the firm. The constituency of Richelieu was supposed to have been lost through the refusal of Hon. Thomas McGreevy and the Connollys to take any part in the election. The same thing was likely to result in Kingston, which the Richelieu & Ontario Navigation Company touches, not to speak of the graving dock, which gives employment to a large number of people. The Connollys refused to do anything in the election until they got some settlement with the Government. Mr. Metcalfe, their Conservative candidate, brought pressure to bear on the government to make a payment to the contractors or else his chances of election were gone. The result has been that a cheque for $32,000 was forwarded the Connolly Bros. Mr. Ouimet issued the cheque two days ago. Sir John Thompson is now in the Maritime Provinces abusing Mr. McGreevy and the Connolly Bros and declaring that until they cleared themselves of the charges against them or their case is finally disposed of by the courts not a copper will be paid to the contractors. While the Minister of Justice was posing as a great purist before the electors down by the sea, Hon. Frank Smith was arranging with the Connolly Bros. to pay them $32,000 on account. Senator Smith completed the arrangements and all that Mr. Ouimet had to do was to issue the cheque for the amount referred to.

BRITISH COLUMBIA'S WEALTH.

Mr. R. G. Tatlow, an old resident of Montreal, but who has been in British Columbia for some 12 years past, was in the city the other day and interviewed by a reporter in regard to the mineral richness of that province. He says that in Ontario and Quebec provinces there is a general lack of knowledge in regard to the great wealth of the mineral fields of British Columbia. The great valleys of the province he says lie north and south and the average traveller, going by the C.P.R., which runs east and west arrives at the same conclusion as Mr. Blake did that it is a "sea of mountains."

"Speaking generally," he continued, the interior of the province is a sea of of mountains—mountains on whose sides are forests of magnificent timber which contain incalculable mineral wealth—mountains separated by valleys on whose benches clothed in succulent bunch grass thousands of head of cattle may be seen grazing, while lower down on the rich bottom lands the farmer raises as good crops of grain, fruit and vegetables as any part of the Dominion can produce. If any of your readers wishes a trip, which, besides pleasure and instruction, may bring material gain, let me suggest to him to try the valleys of the Upper and Lower Kootenay."

UPPER KOOTENAY.

"The former is reached by steamer from Golden on the Upper Columbia—a narrow, winding stream, whose swift current and constantly changing channel render navigation difficult, especially in the autumn when the water becomes very shallow. From Golden to the lakes where the Columbia rises is about one hundred miles, all through magnificent scenery—winding now through narrow passes above whose darkly timbered banks tower the snow-flecked peaks of the Rockies on the one side and the Selkirks on the other, which as they approach force the stream into a narrow gorge and then with a sudden bend branch out into a large expansive valley, whose low banks are clothed with timber alternating with meadows of luxuriant wild grass.

"Surrounding the mouths of many of the creeks flowing into the river are good cattle ranges, and in nearly every case there is a good amount of alluvial land to provide abundant winter feed, but at present attention is nearly exclusively devoted to mining.

FARMING LANDS.

"It would be impossible in the small space at command," said Mr. Tatlow, "to give an adequate description of the Upper Kootenay valley. At a rough estimate I should say there are about 250,000 acres of land capable of utilization for range and farming purposes. It is doubtful whether much of this, except at the mouths of creeks, would grow wheat without irrigation; but I have no doubt that where water is plentiful good wheat can be produced. The night frosts which occur in the swamps and low lands do not affect the benches and appear to decrease as the mountains are approached. At the present time there are ranches of 2000 head of stock in the two valleys (Upper Columbia and Upper Kootenay). No test of fall wheat has been made. All root crops do well, potatoes being exceptionally fine. At a ranch on Wild Horse creek, probably the highest cultivation in the Rocky Mountains, I saw trees laden with splendid apples, while in a garden lower down were as fine tomatoes and Indian corn as any in the Province."

MINERAL PROSPECTS.

"When the mineral prospects of the Kootenays are considered," Mr. Tatlow went on, "agricultural advantages of this valley appear doubly bright. The Rockies are not generally regarded as a great mineral range on this side of the line, but in the Upper Kootenay valley the Limestone gives place to the Selkirk or Cambrian formation, and, commencing at Sheep creek, about 28 miles from Fort Steele, the same mineral belt which contains the Anaconda, which built up Butte, and other neighboring cities of Montana, extends south along the east of the valley, while the Selkirks bound the west. It is not exaggeration to say that there is not a creek flowing into the Upper Kootenay but carries gold. Rich prospects of coppper glance, gray copper, galena and other minerals have been found in this vicinity, while the coal of the Crow's Nest Pass is already celebrated."

THE CHAIN GANG.

Westminster Trades and Labor Council Protest Against it.

At the last fortnightly meeting of the Westminster Central Labor Union the following preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted and ordered to be printed in the newspapers of Westminster:

WHEREAS, The system has existed in the Province of British Columbia apparently for very many years, of employing a large number of the inmates of the Provincial jails, in the several cities of the Province, on the public thoroughfares, parks and reserves, in a body commonly known as and designated a "chain gang;" and

Whereas, Such a system is detrimental to the well-being and credit of the Province, and to the respectability and enlightenment of the inhabitants thereof, as a people of advancement in this stage of civilisation, and wherein they are made to display and acknowledge a custom only worthy of the barbaric centuries of the far distant past, when justice and man's rights were practically misunderstood; and

Whereas, Such a system has a most demoralizing effect on the prisoners themselves, causing them to abandon every atom of self-respect which might still remain to them, to nourish the hope of their redemption from the ways of crime, and fitting them only for deeds that are darker and more criminal than their first offences were; and

Whereas, The adoption of such procedure only tends to degrade and debase the moral nature and consciences of all who behold the sorry spectacle of a chained body of men, led and driven by armed guards, parading through the streets; passing, probably, in the march the happy acquaintances of better days, or the shuddering, sensitive citizens not yet accustomed to so melancholy a sight; and

Whereas, the Trades and Labor Council respectfully submits that it is manifestly unjust and unfair to all law abiding, respectable, but laboring subjects of Her Majesty, to force them, while in pursuit of an honest living, to submit to the indignity of being placed in open competition with prisoners in chains—almost, it might be said, working side by side with the convicts they are assessed to maintain—or, refusing to be thus degraded, are forced, through circumstances, to acknowledge to loving families their inability to forstall the sufferings from hunger and the absence of any material home comforts; therefore, be it

Resolved, that the New Westminster Trades and Labor Council respectfully urges upon the Provincial Government the necessity of the immediate abolition of such a barbarous system, and that employment be found within the gaol walls, by the establishment of suitable work for all who are so unfortunate as to merit a common punishment by confinement therein at hard labor; the products of such work, however, not to become the marketable property of the public at a less price than that obtained for the products of honest industry in the same line, and of an equal quality; and it is further

Resolved, That the council hereby resolves itself to do all in its power, and to use all honorable and lawful means to bring about the abolition of this inquitous and debasing system, so that the contamination, both moral and physical thus engendered, shall be made to cease forever; and thus remove from our streets a sight at once abhorent and disgraceful; and be it still further

Resolved, That this council earnestly call on all other labor organizations, members of parliament and Christian societies, to bring this matter prominently to the front, and thus help to stamp out the unwholesome practice of employing convict labor, to the detriment of honest men, which, if not now checked will reduce our working population—already unequally pitted against Chinese cheap labor—to a state of want and suffering.

INTERIOR INTELLIGENCE.

News Notes Clipped From the Inland Press---Mining and Other News.

From the Inland Sentinel.]

Mr. J. C. Myles left last night for Victoria. Mrs. Myles will accompany him on his return.

Revs. J. E. Hunter and H. T. Crossley, the well known evangelists, have been holding union evangelistic meetings in the Presbyterian and Methodist churches during the week.

A snowslide at Clanwilliam, 10 miles this side of Revelstoke, on Friday, prevented the train coming west from getting through. It is reported that a man was buried by it.

The Presbyterian Church on Wednesday evening was filled by a brilliant and large company, gathered to witness the marriage ceremony which was to unite Mr. Thomas Sweeney and Miss Hannah Fortune. The event had been for a long time anticipated, and expectation was on tiptoe to take in all the incidents of the elegant affair.

Col. Forester, of the Lake View House, will have a social invitation dance at his hotel in Sicamous on the 5th and 6th of February. It is not often that the Colonel indulges his friends with an entertainment of this kind, and with the improvements recently made in his hotel, he is in better shape to accommodate and entertain the lovers of terpsichorean pleasures than ever before, and this affair will, of course, be the best one he has ever given.

It has been the custom of the St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society of Kamloops to celebrate the natal day of their beloved national poet, and this year it was carried out in the best style. Nearly 50 of the native Scots and their descendants and friends assembled in the dining-room of the Grand Pacific Hotel, and took seats at the banquet table.

The dramatic entertainment given by the Hospital Women's Aid on Thursday was a grand success. The very laughable farce, "Ici on Parle Francais," was put on with great effect, the plot being well worked up and the interest sustained throughout.

From the Vernon News.]

At the recent meeting of the Okanagan Land & Development Co., Mr. G. G. Mackay was re-elected president and general manager.

The Round Prairie Logging Co., have cut and banked 250,000 feet of logs at Brewer's mill at Armstrong.

On Tuesday night Mr. Monteith received instructions from the Provincial Executive to take temporary charge of the Government buildings and property until the arrival of the inspecting officer from Victoria.

Mr. C. O'Keefe is about to fence in 3000 acres of pasture land on the range between Vernon and the head of Okanagan Lake. This will include the greater part of his land adjoining the Indian reserve running along the east side of the north end of the lake. Eight miles of Russell fence will be required.

The first religious service in Armstrong was held on Sunday afternoon, 24th inst., conducted by the Rev. J. P. Hicks, Methodist minister.

The banns of Mr. O. Harvey and Miss R. Lawes was called for the first time last Sunday at the English church at Enderby.

In Grand Prairie a very moderate winter prevails and cattle are in good condition. There are over 3000 head here, outside parties having fetched stock in to winter on straw; Vick has 1000, Roper Bros., 500, J. Wilson 500.

At the inquest before Coroner Dr. Clarke, to enquire into the death of Mr. Walter Dewdney, Government agent, the jury returned a verdict that deceased "came to his death by shooting himself with a pistol while of unsound mind through ill health and too close application to his official duties."

For the past three years the settlers in the Coldstream Valley have been waiting for a school house to be built by the Government. Their trustees were elected long since and a site given by Mr. Brewer, but still their children are without the advantage of a free education. The difficulty appears to be one which could easily be overcome and such as ought never to have arisen. The Government grant for their school building only amounts to $700; the proposed school, built according to the plans sent to the secretary of the trustees (Mr. C. Brewer) by the Department of Education, could not be erected for less than $1150 or $870 minus the fence. The plans specify that the building be plastered. As the settlers are not in need of a plastered building or a fence, but require education for their children, it seems absurd to cause a deadlock over such trifles. A less expensive building could be erected, and a fence is certainly not a sine qua non.

Mothers

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mothers' friend. 35 doses, 35 cents.

Headaches, dimness of vision, partial deafness, hawking and spitting invariably result from catarrh, which may be cured by the use of Nasal Balm. It has cured others, why not you?

An Alaska Pioneer Dead.

James Schmelig, the old pioneer druggist of Alaska, died at his home in Juneau, Friday, Jan. 22, after a few days illness. He was interred Sunday, Jan. 24, under the auspices of the brother Masons.

Purify The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is hereditted and transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poison and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is nothing more conclusively proven than the positive power of Hood's Sarsaparilla to cure all diseases of the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes catarrh, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling, and building up the whole system. In its preparation, its medicinal merit, and the wonderful cures it accomplishes Hood's Sarsaparilla is Peculiar to Itself. Thousands testify to its success, and the best advertising Hood's Sarsaparilla receives is the hearty endorsement of its army of friends. Every testimonial we publish, and every statement we make on behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla may be relied upon as strictly true in every respect.

Your Blood

If you need a good blood purifier or building up medicine, be sure to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Further information and statements of cures sent free to all who address us as below.

FROM NEW WESTMINSTER.

A Popular Boat Builder Takes Unto Himself a Wife---A Would-Be Incendiary.

Special to the TIMES.]

NEW WESTMINSTER, Feb. 1.—Capt. George Cooper was married this morning to Miss Annie McLeod of this city. Mr. Cooper is well known on this coast through building queer boats. One was lately built by him, called the Dreadnaught, and every mariner who saw her predicted that she would go down when the first breeze hit her. The boat was built of ordinary flooring planks and scantling and clipped nails, but, instead of going down, she weathered the fiercest gale without shipping a drop of water. She has done fine service in rough waters on the north coast and paid for herself many times over. Mr. Cooper is now building a steamer for the up-river trade.

The Chinese are going to have a grand carnival here this week. They are not satisfied with small sized parties in private houses and are going to jubilate on a greater scale. The devil was bombarded clean out of town on Saturday night. Thousands of firecrackers were set off.

Rev. Father Benson lectured to men only in Holy Trinity Church yesterday afternoon. He is not much of a talker but has original ideas. His advice was of the usual "stop it, young man," variety.

Tillman Herring, fish curer and deputy harbor master, lives in a floating scow near the ferry landing. Saturday night he was going into his room on the scow and found all his clothes saturated with coal oil. The bedding was found to be the same way a few days ago. Herring had a Chinaman up in court for throwing garbage in the river and revenge is supposed to be the motive. Diligent search is being made for the would-be incendiary. The men were evidently scared off on hearing Herring coming. Had the scow taken fire, the rowing clubs' boat house adjoining, containing many valuable boats, must have gone also and in all probability the ferry lahding as well.

Schooner Umbrina. Capt. Hughes, left for the sealing grounds to-day.

It is understood that an American company is negotiating for the purchase of the tug Lorne. Her present owners are not using her now.

Mr. Wm. Turpel has commenced work on the new steamer for Messrs. Dunsmuir, which is to be put on the Comox route. She will be launched either on the 14th or 28th of March. The deck planks are now being dressed and will be well seasoned when the steamer is ready.

Schooner Umbrina has put into Neah Bay with a loss of a full-sail in the recent rough weather. Schooner Sea Lion was reported to have lost two boats.

The British ship Ulidia, 2400 tons, cleared from Astoria on Saturday for Falmouth, England, with 136,948 bushels of wheat from Eastern Washington, the largest wheat cargo ever cleared from the Columbia River.

The whaleback Wetmore has had another accident. The City of Seattle, while going into the dock at Seattle Friday night, ran into the Wetmore and tore off one of her steel plates. The Wetmore continued to Port Townsend where, after investigation, she was found to be leaking. It was decided to lighten her so that the break might be repaired, so she steamed to Irondale, across the bay, where, after she has discharged 1500 tons of her cargo of coal, repairs will be made. It is expected that the damage can be remedied and the coal reloaded so that the steamer can proceed on her way to San Francisco by Monday next.

A Man of Business.

Arkansaw Traveller: A man said that he wanted to see the president of the bank and was told that the president was busy. "But I must see him," the visitor insisted. "It is to his interest as well as mine and if you don't show me in you will be the cause of the bank losing money, that's all."

His air was so commanding and voice so persuasive that he was shown into the president's room.

"Good morning, sir!"

"Good morning," the president responded, giving the visitor a look of inquiry.

"I wish to open an account with you."

"Ah! sit down, sir."

The visitor seated himself and then said: "Yes, I want to deposit with you."

"Glad to hear it, sir. What amount do you wish to deposit?"

"Well, I don't exactly know yet," the visitor answered, "In fact, it somewhat depends. I have just started a paper, a weekly publication of great merit, I assure you, and I should very much like an advertisement from your bank; and as you are a thorough business man, I didn't know but I might make this a sort of deal with you: Give me an advertisement and I will let the sum that it amounts to go in as a deposit. Here," and he whipped out a "dummy" of his sheet, "look at this magnificent space. Ain't it a lulu? I mean don't it show up to the Queen's taste? Now, you take this space for three months at $100 an just credit me up on your books for that amount. Don't you see how easy and how business-like it is?"

It was some time before the president could speak, and he did not use violent language, but it was noticed that when the visitor came out his countenance looked as though it had been subjected to hard usage.

Jewish Colonization in the Northwest.

Mr. W. H. Baker, agent for Baron Hirsch and also acting on behalf of the Mansion House committee, London, had an interview with the Minister of the Interior to-day with reference to the settlement of Russian Jews in the Northwest. The immediate matter in hand was the locating of some fifty families, the heads of which are guaranteed to be agriculturists. In 1884 the Mansion House committee, acting under the existing Dominion Lands Act, located seventeen families of Russian Jews as an experiment, on 2720 acres of land in the neighborhood of Moosomin. They were sent out by the committee, their expenses paid and certain advances made, which were secured to the committee by mortgages under the act. The experiment was not successful. The men knew nothing whatever about agriculture and soon wandered off the lands, most of them starting as Pedlars, and all, or nearly all of them being now settled in business in Winnipeg, where some of them have done very well. The farms were abandoned and finally reverted to the Mansion House committee, subject to the conditions as to actual sale and settlement set out in the last Dominion Lands' Act. The present proposition is to settle some of the fifty families already referred to on these abandoned farms, and to acquire additional lands adjoining to accommodate the remainder of the families. The idea is to have them altogether, partly for religious reasons and partly because it is thought they would do better by keeping together than they would if scattered about the territories.
